

Visitor's Wilderness Application

Front Country East Ranger District
San Bernardino National Forest

PERMIT REQUIRED: A Visitor's Permit is required to enter the San Gorgonio Wilderness on this District. Permits are free to anyone who will follow simple rules intended to protect both the visitor and the resources. Trailheads and trail camps have daily quotas, so plan accordingly.

HOW TO OBTAIN PERMIT - Permits may be obtained in person at the Mill Creek or Sky Forest Ranger Stations or the Big Bear Discovery Ctr. Permits may also be obtained by mail up to 3 months in advance by faxing or mailing this application to the Mill Creek Ranger Station.

Fax: (909) 794-1125

Mail To: Mill Creek Ranger Station

34701 Mill Creek Rd.

Mentone, CA 92359

We suggested you allow 8 to 12 days for the receipt of the permit by mail. We do not FAX permits. A separate permit is required for each trip. Please include an alternate itinerary in case your first choice is not available.

For the consideration of others please call the number below to cancel your reservation if you are not able to make the trip.

Phone: 909-382-2882

SAFETY: Remember to plan ahead. You are responsible for your own safety! Let someone at home know your itinerary and who to contact if you do not return when planned.

WEATHER AND TRAIL CONDITIONS CAN CHANGE WITHOUT WARNING - be prepared!

Visit SGWA.ORG for the latest trail conditions.
